2. This passport cannot be revalidated beyond ten years from the date of issue.
3. The possession of this passport does not exempt the holder from compliance with immigration regulations in force in Nepal or foreign countries or from the necessity of obtaining a visa where required.
4. It is important that Nepalese citizens resident abroad at the earliest opportunity register their names and addresses at the nearest Nepalese Mission. Failure to register may, in a period of emergency, result in difficulty or delay in acceding them the protection which they are entitled to. Change of address or departure from the country should also be notified to the Mission.
5. Misuse of this passport in violation of the conditions or restrictions contained herein may result in withdrawal of the protection of the Government of Nepal from the holder while he/she continues to reside abroad and he/she may be liable for prosecution. This passport may be impounded in case of unlawful use or for conducting activities prejudicial to the safety and interests of the State.
6. If this passport is lost or destroyed, the fact and circumstances of the loss or destruction should be immediately reported to the Central Passport Office, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Nepal, or to the nearest Nepalese Mission and to the local police authorities. New passport may be issued in such cases only after exhaustive investigations.
7. This passport must not be altered or mutilated in any manner. No stamp, statement, notation or other addition should be placed or made in the passport other than by the officials of Nepal or foreign countries who are authorized to do so in connection with official matters. Any unauthorized alteration in this passport shall render it INVALID.
